5 ways to good mental wellbeing

BE ACTIVE

- Go for a walk or run.
- Step outside.
- Cycle.
- Play a game.
- Garden.
- Dance.
- Exercising makes you feel good.
- Most importantly, discover a physical activity you enjoy and that suits your level of mobility and fitness.

CONNECT

- With the people around you.
- With family, friends, colleagues and neighbours.
- At home, work, school or in your local community.
- Think of these as the cornerstones of your life and invest time in developing them.
- Building these connections will support and enrich you every day.

TAKE NOTICE

- Be curious.
- Catch sight of the beautiful.
- Remark on the unusual.
- Notice the changing seasons.
- Savour the moment, whether you are walking to work, eating lunch or talking to friends.
- Be aware of the world around you and what you are feeling.
- Reflecting on your experiences will help you appreciate what matters to you.

KEEP LEARNING

- Try something new.
- Rediscover an old interest.
- Sign up for that course.
- Take on a different responsibility at work.
- Fix a bike.
- Learn to play an instrument or how to cook your favourite food.
- Set a challenge you enjoy achieving.
- Learning new things will make you more confident as well as being fun.

GIVE

- Do something nice for a friend, or a stranger.
- Thank someone.
- Smile.
- Volunteer your time.
- Join a community group.
- Look out, as well as in.
- Seeing yourself, and your happiness, as being linked to the wider community can be incredibly rewarding and creates connections with the people around you.

Resolve Unresolved Issues

Issues like DEBT, RELATIONSHIP PROBLEMS, BEREAVEMENT, can make people feel alone and seriously affect people's mental health and wellbeing. There is help available – Visit <https://lincolnshire.connecttosupport.org> or <https://haylincolnshire.co.uk> to see what's available in your area and get help with issues that hold you back.

Wellbeing Hubs

Wellbeing Hubs are community spaces where people can access a variety of wellbeing and mental health resources and signposting. They provide a non-clinical, safe space and support individuals to have choice, understanding, and take control of and manage their own mental health and wellbeing. The Hubs are linked to your local Community Connectors who provide free, confidential support and advice and signpost to other services in the local area. Hubs are a great place to visit if you want to take up a new hobby or activity, improve your mental health or reduce loneliness and isolation.

Wellbeing hubs run throughout Lincolnshire, including satellite and roving outreach provision.

Below is a list of the main hubs. To find out about one of our satellite and roving outreach hubs which may be closer to you, contact your local Community Connector using the link below.

Your Community Connectors

Community connectors are a valuable resource for anyone who could benefit from improved social connections, access to services, or assistance in navigating what is available locally. Their role is to create a sense of belonging and support for all members of the community.

While anyone can potentially benefit from the services and support provided by connectors, certain groups or situations may particularly benefit from their assistance. These include:

- People experiencing mental health challenges
- Those experiencing social isolation
- Low-income families
- Senior citizens
- Refugees and asylum seekers
- People with long-term health conditions
- Survivors of domestic violence, to name a few

Find your local connector here:
www.haylincolnshire.co.uk/meet-the-connectors

How Are You, Lincolnshire?

How Are You, Lincolnshire is an online directory of professional support services and activities across Lincolnshire, to help people boost their mental health and wellbeing.

The directory includes hobby groups and support networks, as well as access to practical support such as housing and debt advice and community hubs.

A screenshot of the HayLincolnshire website. At the top right is the NHS logo. The main heading is 'How are you, Lincolnshire?' in a white speech bubble. Below it, the text reads: 'Are you looking to boost your wellbeing and mental health? Find local groups on haylincolnshire.co.uk'. On the right side, there are three circular icons: 'Connections' (three people), 'Support' (hands holding a heart), and 'Self-help' (a person with a heart). At the bottom left, there are logos for H.A.Y. Lincolnshire and Lincolnshire Community Mental Health & Wellbeing Transformation.

Shine Lincolnshire

Shine Lincolnshire connects people and communities by promoting health, wellbeing, independence and choice.

Shine Lincolnshire works to create, connect, and deliver services that are accessible to all. Supporting personal choice; and offering opportunities that promote positive health and wellbeing.

This includes access to volunteer opportunities, peer support and training.

To find out more, visit:

www.shinelincolnshire.com

Lincolnshire Recovery College

Lincolnshire Recovery College offer free educational courses about mental health, recovery and wellbeing. Courses are open to anyone aged 16+ who lives, works or studies in Lincolnshire.

Most of the sessions are held online, although some are face-to-face across the county.

Courses include:

- Courses for carers.
- Creative workshops.
- "Let's talk about it," includes topics such as autism, bipolar, antidepressants.
- Other mental health and wellbeing courses.

"Very polite, warm and welcoming course leaders. I felt heard and understood."

"I am normally shy but felt comfortable. It felt inclusive, especially as the trainers shared their experiences."

Wellbeing Lincs

Wellbeing Lincs is a countywide service that helps people to live independently through life's changes. The service is funded by Lincolnshire County Council and delivered by Lincolnshire's district councils working in partnership. Wellbeing Lincs will:

- Assess people's support needs in order to help them to live confident and independent lives
- Provide short-term support (for up to 12 weeks) to ensure they feel safe in their own home, engage them in community services, and reduce or prevent the escalation of an individual's needs.
- Signposting to other services, such as money advice, local groups, clubs and charities.
- Help people to resettle at home following discharge from hospital.
- Supply small aids, equipment and home adaptations (charges may apply).
- Receive and respond to calls from telecare careline customers (charges may apply).

Mental Health Support in Primary Care

Mental Health Practitioners

Mental health practitioners support adults and older adults with severe mental illnesses to live well in their communities.

Based in GP surgeries, they act as a 'bridge' between primary care and specialist mental health services.

How to access:

Mental health practitioners are accessible via the GP Surgery, but do not require a referral from a GP. Reception staff will be able to book you in for either a face-to-face or telephone appointment.

Social Prescribers

Social Prescribing Link Workers (SPLW) connect people to activities, groups, and services in their community.

Social prescribing works well for people who feel lonely or isolated, with long term conditions and complex social needs that impact their mental health and wellbeing or need support in behaviour change to achieve a healthy lifestyle.

How to access:

You can be referred by GPs, or from agencies, including local authorities, pharmacies, multi-disciplinary teams, hospital discharge teams, allied health professionals, fire service, police, job centres, social care services, housing associations and voluntary organisations.

Mental Health Support in Primary Care

Health and Wellbeing Coach

Health and wellbeing coaches work to help you achieve personal fitness and lifestyle goals. They help you to increase overall levels of physical health, embrace healthier lifestyle choices and maintain long-term behavioural change, improving physical and mental wellbeing and reducing the risk of developing long-term conditions.

How to access:

You can speak to healthcare colleagues within a GP practice and they can refer you. You will see a health and wellbeing coach in the same way you would usually see your GP or practice nurse.

Care Coordinator & Care Navigation

A Care Coordinator is a trained health professional that works alongside you to co-ordinate and navigate care across the health and care system, to help you make the right connections, with the right teams, at the right time. They can also support follow-up conversations with Primary Care Professionals.

Care Navigation - In some GPs, receptionists and other staff may have been trained to provide care navigation and signposting. This is a light-touch approach and works for people who are able to find their own way to community groups and services.

How to access:

Speak to your GP, or other healthcare professional.
